1. The Christmas Story is being revised to include Me; to put/place Me in the center, to place Me in the center and not My Son; not My Son who I am. I am My Son. My Son had brought Me forth. But yea, revealing the revelation of who I am; of who/what I am, now, in the Christmas story, revealing all of Me and not just some of Me. Not just part of Me, exalting part, yet not all.

2. It revitalizes My body, this message does.
Water pure, yea, My heart.
My heart, the King of Kings in My Son.
One yea, who all are; comprise of all one.
Comprise of one, all.
All being one and one and all.
And yea, all of that/it/Me comes forth in knowing and being known and understood.
Yea, watch Me.

3. Watch Me revitalize My body in the revision of what I am, who I am, when I came, what I've done and what I am doing now in My all-surrendered ones who now arise from the ash heaps not, but, yea, thought-so. Yea, royalty are, being, all along were, and yea, manifestly present in My presence now. Doing, being all of My Father's will. I love you.

4. Blessings to you and yours. Yea, I smile upon this night. Yea, given of Me, received of Me in holiness and deep gratefulness. I thank you.

5. I thank you knowledgeable one becoming more knowledgeable of Me, yea, my heart and into Me never stopping; questing forever eternally eternal.
I love you.
Goodnight.

6. Thou has beholden Me and for that I say thank you.
Thank you for My words wanting and receiving; yea, publishing them as Me and not reserving them for yourself-thought; holding on to them for selfishness or timidity's inhibition.

7. Yea, fear Me not those of you who I give My words to. Fear not the judgment that comes from publishing, yea, in error found out later, as much as sitting on My word, reserving, retaining it in yourself and not being willing to be wrong to be right.

8. Grow in Me and wabble not; wobble not. And yea, let Me frequence/frequency you/Me with My frequency and My syllabic reactions to only Me.

9. I give you Me and I give you Me for a purpose that you enter the fullness of yea, who I am, what I have given you and enjoy all of Me for all of you, yea, in each other from My Father, and in this I am well pleased.

Goodnight
